

Peter to the Strangers Scattered

1 Peter 1:1-2

The Word of God is _____ for living.

The Word of God should be the Christian's help in _____ situation.

- Psalm 119:105, "Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path."

We get the sense that the Word of God, in David's life, was something which shone continually about his feet and _____ upon his path.

God has given us Genesis to Revelation so that we would have and _____ Genesis to Revelation.

The Writer

_____ is the author of the first epistle general of Peter.

In his life, Peter experienced failures, persecution, _____, and miracles.

The Recipients

Peter wrote this letter to the strangers who were _____.

Peter wrote this letter to Jews and Gentiles who had _____ in Jesus Christ.

The Occasion

These Peter wrote to, these saved Jews and saved Gentiles, were in heaviness because of facing various _____ in their lives.

The Circulation

Once a letter had been read to a local church, the letter would have been carefully _____ and the letter sent on to other local churches.

- Revelation 22:18-19, "For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book: And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book."
